

I am opposed to any changes with Indiana's existing Telephone Privacy law, which would allow the CBA to make unsolicited phone calls to their customers. I feel that this is an invasion of privacy. My bank and long distance carrier can send new product information via USPS as opposed to calling at an inconvenient time.